

Panel A uses each cohort-specific primary adjusted model. Panel B uses the common model form with and without peak-dose category on the same sample within each cohort. Estimates are not pooled.